Norwest Holst Awarded £50 Million Contract to Design & Construct New Sixth Form College at Luton

The London & Northern Home Counties region of Norwest Holst's Building division (part of VINCI PLC) has been awarded a £50 million contract for the design and construction of a new sixth form college in Luton.

The 16,000m² building will be constructed within the grounds of the existing college which will remain in full occupation throughout the construction period.

The college is due to be completed by the spring of 2010 and will provide 2,300 places, avoiding the current need to place prospective students on a waiting list.

Improved sports facilities for use by the community as well as the college students also forms part of the contract.

The architect for the project is KSS Design Group who have offices in London and Kent.
